

The victims say: "...this is never, ever, ever going away until we get justice and reparations for our damages by the attacks and the fraud engaged in against us! Our investigators have been pre-paid, years in advance, and they have already had incredible success in the interdiction of a portion of the suspects. Every day, new information is uncovered. The clock is ticking and the appropriate parties need to come to the table to resolve this issue today!"