
THE BIG BOOK OF POLITICAL CORRUPTION

A Personal History Of Hit-Jobs, Money Laundering And Bribery That We Experienced In America

In-Production Draft Revision 2.5

- Notes -

Preparation and authoring of portions of this document includes text produced by White House officials, Secret Service officers and counsel, Congressional members and staff, Federal agency investigators and IC specialists, legal departments of universities, federal attorneys and non-profit legal groups for this case matter. Where previously published news articles, or sections therefrom, are included, we have sought to either include a byline, a link or the reporter name herein.

In it's current draft; typo's, grammer errors and repeated text have not yet been edited out, yet.

This document is updated regularly as new evidence emerges. Check back with the original link, or source, where you acquired this document, for the latest version.

Due to the number of death-threats and actual deaths involved in this matter (listed below), the historical record of attacks on the witnesses (listed below) and the current legislative civil wars over policy issues (As seen in the news headlines), extraordinary protection resources are being taken on behalf of the victim/authors. Some authors requested that they be hidden due to the threats.

The protective mesures for the writers include pre-distributed, shockingly embarrassing, "insurance policy" digital expose' data sets already sent to journalists and loaded into encrypted torrents globally, pre-authored auto-distribution press releases and other novel-technology means-of-protection incentives. Those insurance policy leaks will be released if the authors are attacked further.

Overview

One of the authors of this document has served his nation and his community for the full duration of his life. In exchange, government officials took away his house, his income, his job, his life savings, his brand and every possible source of income using sophisticated spy craft-type attacks.

He was attacked because he reported an organized crime involving famous U.S. Senators and their billionaire sex addict buddies.

If you have been media brain-washed into thinking that there is no such thing as billionaire sex addict political manipulators then you need to look up the police cases of Jeffrey Epstein, Andy Rubin, Howard Rubin, Ed Buck and the hundreds of other sex cult cases in the federal courts on <http://www.pacer.gov>.

In 2007, if someone said: “The Social Security Administration and other government offices have been weaponized to provide revenge, retribution, reprisal and retaliation attacks against witnesses, whistleblowers and journalists...” you might have laughed. Now, as of 2021, over 2000 victorious lawsuits and IG investigations later, That statement has irrefutably been proven, in courts, to have been totally true....
